SUBJECT: SYRIAN NATIONAL DAY ATTENDANCE

REF: STATE 20919

¶1. (SBU) Posts receiving invitations to receptions for Syria's April 17 National Day are authorized to attend at the deputy chief of mission level or below. In any substantive discussion of U.S. policy toward Syria, posts are authorized to draw from ref tel points. This is a one-time authorization.

¶2. (SBU) Since 2005, the Department has maintained extremely limited official contact with Syria, a designated state sponsor of terrorism. President Obama and Secretary Clinton have committed to sustained and principled engagement with Syria to advance shared goals and address key concerns. On February 26, NEA Acting Assistant Secretary Jeffrey Feltman met Syrian Ambassador Imad Mustapha in Washington. On March 7, Feltman and NSC Senior Director for the Near East and North Africa Daniel Shapiro met Syrian Foreign Minister Walid Muallim in Damascus. In the wake of these initial contacts, Syria has taken limited positive steps, including naming an ambassador to Lebanon, dispatching Muallim to Baghdad to meet Prime Minister Nouri al-Maliki, and agreeing to reopen the American Language Center in Damascus. As additional engagement proves fruitful, the Department will undertake a broader review of its policy on official contact with Syria.

¶3. (SBU) Please contact NEA Syria desk officer Allison Monz with questions or for further guidance.
